

Teacher Aides

We are looking for 2 outstanding, innovative and enthusiastic Teacher Aides to join our team start of 2027 school year.

- Position 1 – Permanent Grade B - term time only
- Position 2 - Fixed term position to start Beginning of School year 2027 term time only, Grade B This position ends when seniors leave (early November 2027 TBC).
- Approximately 20-25 hours per week (within school hours)

Our ideal candidates will relate well to young people across a range of cultures and needs. It is an advantage if you have experience as a Teacher Aide but please apply if you believe you have the passion and skills necessary. You will be highly motivated to establish professional and supportive relationships with students, so they accept and seek your help. You will need good literacy and numeracy skills. Applicants must be familiar with technology and able to support students to meet their achievement goals. Applicants must also be able to work constructively as part of our Learning Support Team and alongside classroom Teachers. The successful applicant will be required to undergo safety checking, including a police vet, before starting work. When applying, please indicate if you are willing to be considered for the permanent and/or fixed term position.
